Tiong Bahru Bakery @ Tangs

Don't be surprised if you come across a familiar sight whilst shopping in town – Tiong Bahru Bakery. Slowly but surely, this up-and-coming café is cementing its presence in the F&B scene with a new corner shop in Tangs Orchard. Located on street level, shoppers and office workers alike can now easily find a place to stop by for quality pastries and coffee. We recommend the signature Mini Croissants ($1.80) for a light afternoon snack or the Chocolate Almond Croissant ($4) for the sweet toothed. If you are looking for something more filling, go for the delicious Kouign Amann ($4) that is a sinful combination of flaky bread, butter and caramel. Enjoy your pastries paired with a cup of hot coffee while observing the bustling streets outside through the shop's large glass windows.

Tim Ho Wan

Last December, Tim Ho Wan's two new branches were rolled out in the heartlands of Singapore, at the newly opened Bedok Mall and Westgate. Different monthly specials have also been added to the menu. Check out new creations like Jade Wonton in Laksa Soup ($5) and Yam Dumpling with Chili Crab Meat ($5). Also try unusual menu additions like Crispy Salad Fish Rolls ($4.20) and Dace Fish Paste Soup with Lettuce ($6). Call up the shop to check for their available monthly specials before making your way down.
